SOUTHEAST CONFERENCE, UNITED CHURCH OF CHRIST

Masks are Still in Vogue

Mask on! Mask off! Mask on! Mask off! I continue to keep a mask in all my pockets in case I forget to take one with me (I have a nice collection of masks). But the decision of when to wear them gets a little confusing. Living in the south, our vaccination rates are low (mask needed), but I am surrounded most of the time by folks who are vaccinated (mask not needed). Yet, caution is the name of the game when I am out and about!

There were six children/youth at Pleasant Hill Community Church, TN this morning. Most of the congregation had not physically seen them since last March. But they were there with their masks on to share their summer camp experience. Two things went through my mind as I saw them lined up front: first, I could not believe how they had changed since last March – definitely taller and there were surprising changes in the hair style! Second, how sad that they need to wear masks to school and other places because too many adults are not vaccinated.

For me the mask has become a symbol of caring for other people and this is good. Then I watch the news – the fires in the west, the earthquake in Haiti, the floods in Europe, the war in Afghanistan and so many other tragedies and experiences of trauma. I realize that it takes more than wearing a mask to show I care about people.

So, I take a deep breath and let out a sigh, and I pray: I lament that life seems overwhelming at times; I confess to God that I want to do more and don't always know what; and I express thanksgiving and joy knowing that God understands my fears and despair. I am grateful that God continues to be the ground of my being.

Then I put my mask back on, go about my day, and look for signs of how I can embody the spirit of God - even through the mask. God is indeed with us!

Blessings! Char Burch

News from the Wider Church

Southeast Conference Retired Clergy Arrested in DC

The Rev. Susie Smith, a retired UCC minister who traveled to D.C. from Greenville, S.C., recently participated in the Poor Peoples Campaign as they pressed for voting rights and a $15 minimum wage. While protesting she, along with hundreds of others, was arrested by Capitol Police.

"Rather than guarding the privilege of the few, Jesus of Nazareth and the great prophets of all faith traditions call upon us to share power, wealth and all the resources that have been entrusted to us," Smith said.

"We still believe in the vision of a Beloved Community filled with justice, mercy and compassion for all. We marched on Monday to remind ourselves that we cannot become complicit with the increasing hostility, hatred, violence and division that tear at the fabric of our society."

‘How can you tell a church is UCC?’ New web page has 8 ways

“How can you tell a church is UCC? There are many ways. One of them is by the commitments it makes.” Those words kicked off a recent video introducing a United Church of Christ “Just World Covenants” web page. The new “online hub of justice resources” is a collection of all the special “covenant” programs that local churches can belong to. It’s the first time these programs — some of them in existence for decades — have all been listed, with links, in one place. Learn more on the UCC website.

United Church of Huntsville helps those displaced by COVID-19 with food—and hospitality

Following the closure of the building due to COVID, the United Church of Huntsville was able to start a community food pantry to support those in need in the city and beyond. To this point in 2021, some 16,500 persons/households have been served with nourishing food, which at the pantry's peak, was distributed twice weekly. An additional 2,000 have been served via a small enclosed pantry box outside the UCH building. Read Mike Stroud's article on our website.

5th Annual Shrimp Boil Raises over $1,250 for Back Bay Mission

Back Bay Mission is thanking Pleasant Hill Community Church for hosting a drive-thru shrimp boil to raise funds to help strengthen neighborhoods, seek justice, and transform lives. Just announced is a net profit of over $1,250.00 to be sent to Back Bay Mission. The Pleasant Hill 2021 Shrimp Boil team sold out 50 'take-out only' tickets in 3 days and on July 31 an additional 25 volunteers had a blast getting the shrimp dinners packed up and handing them out in the makeshift drive- thru. It was a superb team effort from all who donated their time, bought tickets, cooked, planned, and who participated in any way. Special thanks go to Jean Nelson for the photos and Dave & Loretta Heigle for coming over from Ohio to boil the shrimp! This generous donation will make a difference in people's lives on the MS Gulf Coast! Church member, Mary Ruth, Back Bay Mission Board Member 2016-2022, led the team and appreciates the support!

Cultivating Generous Congregations Seminar Starting Soon

Can fundraising be ministry? Can stewardship be spiritual? The Cultivating Generous Congregations Seminar this fall offers an opportunity for pastors and lay leaders to explore faithful, practical, and tested ways to promoting generosity in our congregations. We will draw on current research, seek guidance from the wisdom of scripture, and discuss the best practices in church-based fundraising. Pastors and leaders participating in this program will be equipped to lead an effective stewardship campaign and, more broadly, help their congregation reclaim generosity as a spiritual practice. The seminar meetings will be held on Tuesdays – Sept. 21, Oct. 5 & 19, and Nov. 2, 16, & 30. Seminars run from 6:30pm to 8:00pm Eastern Standard Time. There will be readings, videos, and reflections to complete in-between seminar meetings. The program costs $300 for a team of two leaders (additional participants $150 each). Learn more and register by Sept. 14 at: <https://cvent.me/VnEgLK>

They knew: 50 years of the U.S. government causing the climate crisis

The UCC's next Creation Justice Webinar will feature one of the leading voices in environmentalism over recent decades: James Gustave Speth. Among his many accomplishments, Speth served the Carter administration, founded the Natural Resources Defense Council, and spent 10 years as Dean of the Yale School of Forestry and Environmental Studies. In August, he is releasing a new book entitled, They Knew — The U.S. Federal Government's Fifty-Year Role in Causing the Climate Crisis. Naomi Klein has described it as "a damning record that will become a potent tool for justice." Even if you can't make the scheduled time of 1 p.m. ET on Wednesday, Sept. 8th, sign-up anyway, and we will send you a recording.
